

DIAL1602M

Voice Dialer

Two messages dialer with memory of recent 100 events.

The dialer sends an alarm message from a supervised facility via a telephone line. It is applied in burglary protection systems, in industrial automation systems and in any other applications requiring automatic transmission of voice messages.

DIAL1602M - voice dialer

Technical specification

- one 20-second alarm message or two messages 10 seconds each,
- list of 10 telephone numbers,
- memory of recent 100 events,
- battery backup of memory,
- DTMF and PULSE dialing,
- incoming call answer by reproducing alarm message or no alarm signal,
- built-in test of electronic system and presence of telephone exchange tone,
- two NO/NC alarm inputs of programmable triggering time,
- Arming/Disarming input,
- alarm signaling output,
- capability of configuration as a small alarm control panel,
- a set of control codes of different authorizations,
- real time clock,
- 2x16 LCD display,
- 12VDC power supply,
- ABS casing,
- dimensions: width/height/depth [mm]: 212x94x36, weight: 0,32 [kg].